Job Purpose & Background

Oxford International and University of Bedfordshire have entered into an agreement to provide the initial stage (Year 0/Level 3) of four-year bachelor's degree programmes at a teaching Centre situated on the main university campus in Luton. These programmes will prepare international students for the later stages of their bachelor's degrees at Bedfordshire and will contain courses to develop their English language and study skills as well as academic modules.

Tutors will deliver lessons that prepare students fully for their participation in their university programme. The lessons will adopt an interactive, student-centred approach that makes full use of the latest technology to provide students with a varied, lively and purposeful experience.

Main Duties & Responsibilities

- Deliver content modules, Mathematics for Business and Social Sciences and IT Communication Skills to international students from a range of linguistic, educational and cultural backgrounds
- Remain sensitive to the expectations of different nationalities whilst encouraging an open and questioning approach to learning that leads students to become independent learners
- Provide academic support for students, as appropriate, through consultations and tutorials, demonstrating a willingness to offer extra advice outside normal class hours
- Develop and maintain an encouraging classroom environment in which accepted rules of behaviour are consistently applied
- Select, prepare and use teaching and learning materials appropriate for international students and contribute relevant materials to the to the tutors' shared resource drive
- Assess students throughout their content modules and regularly creating, providing and marking both formative and summative evaluations
- Provide detailed oral and written feedback to students and other stakeholders, for example, the Head of Administration and College Director, as required

- Carry out administrative and record-keeping tasks associated with teaching and assessment (e.g. accurate attendance records, student progress reports, schemes of work, test invigilation)
- Lead in the development of schemes of work and assessment materials
- Populate the University VLE with relevant materials for students to access
- Attend and contribute to college meetings and training sessions as required
- Act as a positive ambassador for Oxford International pathway programmes
- Adhere to both the UoB and LBIC codes of conduct for staff
