00:00:07	Verena Stingl	Hi. I'm Verena, and I'm a PhD student at the Technical University of Denmark in the Department of Management Engineering, where I have a somewhat odd topic for a technical university, because I study behaviour, I study decision behaviour or project managers in engineering projects. Anyway, I come originally from Austria, so moving here to Denmark obviously was quite a big deal for me, but what was even the bigger deal was to go back to university,
00:00:37	Verena Stingl	as I have been away from regular student life for more than five, six years, before I actually decided to come back here. So what I'm going to tell you in the upcoming weeks is not only what it's like to be a PhD here – [what] the life and work conditions are, what you have to consider when you actually apply for a position here, but also what's so special about Danish universities that actually they allowed me to take this leap of faith and to restart an
