

Name

(Date of birth)

Address

Phone:

Mobile:

Email:

Qualifications:

PhD: title, date and place where received, supervisor's name/examiners' names

Bachelor's and Master's degrees: details of where and what awarded and grade achieved.

Any other relevant awards, eg teaching qualifications

Appointments and Experience:

List the institutions you have worked at, job titles, most recent first. Also list any key administrative appointments you have held at each, for example admissions tutor.

Other Professional Activities

For example: advisory board position, chair of organisations, membership of organisations

External Examiner:

List PhD students and departments for which you have acted as external examiner

Prizes

List any prizes you have been awarded for your research/publications

Editorial Experience

List any journals/industry publications that you have edited, including titles and dates.

Research interests

Write a couple of sentences about your current research interests.

Research Grants

List grants received: most recent first, including title of project and awarding funding body.

Refereeing for journals/book publishers

Give list of journals or book publishers that have invited you to act as a peer reviewer

Referees:

List the names, postal addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of two referees who know your academic work well.

CV Template provided by :

Great jobs for bright people jobs.ac.uk is the leading international jobs board for academic, research and related vacancies. As well as thousands of great jobs on our website you can also access expert careers advice specifically written for academics, PhDs, researchers and people in Higher Education. Visit:

www.jobs.ac.uk/careers