

*I love being a Forrest Scholar because I am part of a community of inspiring individuals who are researching topics that have the potential for huge societal impact. This community fills me with an immense sense of pride and purpose, which strengthens my drive to conduct the best possible research that I am capable of. Nicole Feast

*I love the Forrest Research Foundation because the essential passion of the heart finds a better soil in which we ignite conversations through interdisciplinary dialogues. Mingxin Ye

*I love being a Forrest Scholar because of the community it provides: making friends with other scholars and fellows, and the opportunity to participate in discussions with experts from all disciplines, not just my own. There are so many things I love about being a Forrest scholar I find it hard to narrow down! Rachel Newsome
